

- anecdote of, i. 3, n.; her letter to her brother, 89; Joseph Bonaparte's remarks concerning her, 90, »./ her anger at l»o-j naparte's reconciliation with his wife, i 22G; her visit to Napoleon, ii. 230.
- Foncier, M., jewels in possession of, i. < 325.
- I
- Fontaine, M., his opinion of the projected j Font des Arts, i. 362.
- j
- Fontainebleau, treaty of, Huron Fain on HH ; broken articles, iv. 50, n.
- l
- Fontanes, M. de, pronounces the funeral eulogium on General Washington, i. 320; hyrnn in honor of Marcngo, ii. 0.
- Forfait, M., Minister of Marine, i. 263.
- Forshmann, M., intrigues of, ii. "t*4; insists | on the insertion of an article in the Correspondant, ' $W_t superseded by M. Alo-pouis, iii. 25.
- Foseolo, Ugo, author of the Ultimc Lttftcn' di Jacopo (Mis), ii. 77, n.
- Fouclw, Marshal (Duke of (Hranto), his instructioniiB to M. Heal, i. 231); epitome of life, 230, n.; api)ointed Minister of Police, 203; discovers the aeeret police, .'52S; IHH dexterity, 330; his enemies, ii. 2f>; and the First Consul, a fiction disproved, ib. ; discovers the inventors of the infernal machine, 21*; his influence with Napoleon, 112; dismissed from his otlee, 1K5; his manuiUvrcH to reconcile Generals M'oreau and Piehegru, 200; his visit to Napoleon, 210; disclosure of, ($04; his conversation with M. Bourriemie, 3«'>2; his hmtructions to him, 3f>9; his activity antl vigilance, iii. 73; his inquiries respecting ('omte dc Hechteren, 110; his contempt for his title, 240; order for his arrest, iv. 71>; his escape, 80j his own account of, ib., n.; placed at the head of the police, 114; his conversation with Napoleon, 11.0; singular declaration of, 116; his efforts against tin* liberty of the press, 117; his letters to the prince of Kckmuhl, 200; to the MiniHter of Marine, 210; appointed Minister of the Police, 224; Beugnot on, 226, 71.; character of, 227; hia intrigueH, 221»;; conversation with M. Bourrienne, 234; his disgrace, 235; under the Restoration, 21»0.
- Foudrua, M., Inspector-General of the police, iv. 76.
- Fourcroy, M., his useful labors, ii. 1118.
- Fourrtfs, M., his miBsiou to the Directory, i. 157. , Madame, her intimacy with Bona parte, i. 157.
- Pox, Mr., hia intimacy with Napoleon, ii. 100; succeeds Mr. Pitt, iii. 25; hi« esteem lor Napoleon, ib. ; Frioul, I>ui: de, inform him of H<*e Duroc.

 tin- «!«» signs to FroSsHunl, <'omte assassinate him, de, proeiuiiu the 20; iUK alhiHioti Botir boiiH,
 to, iv. 21<i. iii. .;VJ.
 Krane<', Frotte, <'ount Louis
 distressed de, intrigue« <jf, h(at<> of the i, U4H, his tmanrrs of, i. execution, ib.
 200; tlifferent Fulton, hia
 govenuu<'iHH in, me>>ori»I ou
 iii. Ht4^uia^HmtM»
 :w2. 11. 42.
 Francis II., Kuipt- Gailliird, M., ror of Auntria, Hentnuced to
 letter of, <|euth; ii. *Hr»;
 intercepted, i. pardoned, 2K7.
 «»,»»; inn letter to Gall, Dr., bin
 General interview with the Bonaparte, uu; Kh»K of iiis pr«'Hents to Kwe<len, iii. 23,
 him, loo; hiri (iallo, Marquis di,
 letter to t!»e AuHtriuti
 Napoleon, iii. pleuljtotm
 127; declan-N tiary, i. f»»; hSw
 war against the (>flVr u> M, < 'onfederation itourrU*fuaie,
 of the Uhin., ! 95. Gumbier, («»,»»; d<-('lares Admiral, nquudron war against Napo- coiu!imtul<ul
 leon, r»tiu; favorH by, In the Hound, the overthrow of ii!, «M>.
 Napoleon, 1501 ; Chmtheaume,
 hin conversation retunm to Knglwul
 with the I hade with Bo Cadore, 3S4; njtpnrte, 1.20K;
 arrives in Paris, hUetvcdei* for ,L iv. 11; visits his fumrvnl
 daughter, 13; (inmdmaiHon,
 compete Maria 212;
 Louisa to Botitipfirfe
 renounce her ordt-rw
 French titien, to, jfo.; anxiety of, 112; concentrates 218; wnt to
)HH forces in Kgypt, H.
 Italy, ih. 57; hi« iudeciaiou,
 Frederick William, *6.
 King of PrusHiu,
 iUH convei'Hation
 witli hinun', i.
 IIOIJ; withdraws
 iUH favor from him, ii. MS; pro poses a line of
 neutrality, !»fil»;
 threatens the e.ity
 <>»f Hamburg, iii.
 2-1; determines on
 war, 34 ;
 Napoleon's
 dupliciyy toward*,
 46; his letter to
 Bonaparte, i~tt";;
 hm inter-view
 with the Knipcmr
 Napoleon, H7,
 his deception,
 272; prenent «t a
 tueeting ait M.
 Talh^yrandH, :5.'»
 H; reantmH for hi«
 dislike of Napoleon, i57S;
 htn re««'«'ptii»u of
 the Fr<'l»ch
 generuJH, :s7;
 viH»iH thr
 Kmpreris
 iJosephine, iv, 1-J,
 n. ; NUJJO Icon's
 opinion of, 47;
 last half of hi« ca reer, :ilJ).
 Prince
 Christian,
 his
 marriuKe,
 iii. 3J.
 Fny'iH, inhabitants
 of, their reception
 of Bonaparte, i.
 21S.